

9th Graders

NEW TO HIGH SCHOOL

PACKAGE A

This program is designed for students that typically are new to the high school experience. Learn to set a proper foundation for a successful high school experience.

- Manage expectations between High School -vs- Middle school
- Debunk myths about high school; learn how it actually works
- Develop useful organizational skills
- Take the fear out of standardized testing
- Learn how to establish and maintain a GPA
- Learn to place social expectations in the proper perspective

$50
per hour session

PACKAGE B

Academic Restoration

CORRECTING BAD HABITS

This program is designed for students that have possibly faltered due to difficulties with coping with anxiety, family changes or the increase of the responsibilities of high school.

- Learn to correct a damaged GPA
- Learn how to study
- Learn how to get the "best" from your teachers and school programs
- Increase academic esteem
- Establish realistic expectations
- Acquire the skill of time management
- Excel despite learning disabilities

$54

per hour
session

Counseling is also available for students who have issues with drugs, gang activity and criminal behaviors

Number of sessions needed varies by student

PACKAGE C

College Prep

PAVING THE ROAD TO COLLEGE

$50

per hour
session

This program is designed to help students that have college as their focus to set and actualize their goals. The road to college has many road blocks and with proper strategies, they can be removed!

- Take the fantasy out of college planning and actually set goals that are attainable!
- Create graphic organizers to help organize the quest for the "perfect" college
- Learn how to pick the right college for your emotional level and learning styles
- Get direct coaching on the college admission process
- Learn to write scholarship essays and admission essays in 3 easy steps
- Get a better understanding of how to get the score you need on the SAT and ACT

Number of sessions needed varies by student

PACKAGE D

Athletic Academic Success

CARRYING BOOKS AND A BALL

$54

per hour
session

This program is designed to help student athletes score both in the classroom and on the field. Learn how to market yourself for the schools of your choice!

- Establish realistic goals for your athletic and academic abilities
- Learn to explain any gaps between academics and athletic abilities to coaches and recruiters
- Gain tips for getting the ACT/SAT score you need
- Learn time management strategies to help master a grueling athletic schedule
- Learn which college is best for your learning style
- Public speaking training for recruitment sessions and interviews

Number of sessions needed varies by student